

A PICTURE
BY EDEN E. REXFORD.
On my wall is a little picture Of a child who has knelt to pray, So real that I often listen For the words her sweet lips say.
It does not seem a picture—
The child who has knelt to pray,
And her clasped hands like twin lilies,
And her face so pure, so sweet.
The sunshine falls like a blessing Like an angel's benediction On the words her lips have said.
Pray on, sweet child, for the angels Are never far away—
From a soul that is pure and stainless As your own white soul to-day.

SCRAPS.
Moving for a new trial—Courting a second wife.

When a patient begins to feed more, his doctor is always feedless.
Those who have tried it say that kissing is like a sewing machine, because it seams good.

Some people say that dark-haired women marry first. We differ; the light-headed ones.

The members of the last Congress are how divided into "backslappers" and "pay-backsters." The postal card, in its way, fulfills the scriptural requirements of an eye for an eye. It is sent for a cent.

What is the difference between a cloud and a whipped child? One pours with rain, and the other roars with pain.

The Norfolk papers describe a ghost which frequents a hotel in Suffolk. It is probably only the figural inn-spectre.

A publisher once advertised under the head of "New Books"— "Mill on Political Economy." "Ditto on the Floss."

A sign on a garden fence near Long Branch reads thus—"Positively no more stealing allowed" on these premises. No exceptions."

An obituary notice in a Connecticut paper concludes with the announcement that "the deceased leaves two infant daughters, both girls."

A young man was arrested in Philadelphia the other day, for stealing fifteen drums. Of course he couldn't keep such a thing as that quiet.

"What's the date of your business?" was what an anxious papa of Cobleskill asked his well-dressed daughter, after searching for the latest copy of his paper.

"DAWN OF GENIUS."—"What's the use of talking to baby, mamma? he can't understand me?" "Why can't he understand me?" "Why he's got no teeth?"

"Cousin Belle, can't we hit upon some plan for making that cold-hearted lover of yours jealous?"
"Oh, yes, Cousin Ralph, I think we can, if we put our heads together."

A Western bridegroom sent an account of his wedding to the village paper, and was mortified when "the wedding tongs" came out in print "the wedding trousers."

A stranger went into a New London store, on Tuesday, and bought a pair, stealing an ax at the same time. Twice he came back and changed the pair, taking another axe each time. Such an ax being illegal the operator was jailed.

A footman from Connemara got a situation in Dublin. On entering a room where there was a vase with golden fish, he exclaimed, "Well, this is the first time I ever saw red hearing alive."

An honest old farmer who thinks a great deal of a certain newspaper devoted to live stock, is in the habit of saying, "The editor of that paper knows more about live stock than any other man in the country. His head is just full of live stock."

A Pennsylvania clergyman of the old school, who believes in punishment, lately said in a sermon to the younger members of his flock, "Don't idle about and depend on the Lord for your daily bread, young man; he isn't running a bakery."

An old lady in Tennessee, living in a rocky district, being asked how she accounted for the unusual mortality in her neighborhood during the present season, said, "Dear me! I can't tell; so many people are dying this year that never died before."

An old farmer said to his sons:—
"Boys, don't you ever speculate or wait for something to run up.
You might just as well go and sit down on a stone, in the middle of a meadow, with a pair of oxen legs, and wait for a cow to back to you to be milked."

An old farmer became seriously ill, and was urged by his neighbors, who thought he was going to die, to call in a minister to pray for him. "To pray for me? No, sir; I am an original Granger, and do not want any middle-man between me and Almighty God."

The following advertisement is from a Boston paper:—"The devil's got a mortgage on Boston. Everything is going to burn up. I'm going to leave. Will sell my piano, melodion, and sewing machine to any one living out of the city fearfully low.—Address 'Presentiment.'" At a public gathering in Lawrence lately, one of the gentlemen present was called upon for a speech and this is how he responded:— "Gentlemen and women, I ain't no speaker; more'n twenty years back I came here a poor idiot boy, and now what are I?"

AN ACT to Regulate the Publication of all Legal and Public Notices.
SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina, now met and sitting in General Assembly, by the authority of the same, It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, the Comptroller General, and the Secretary of State, jointly and severally, to publish by public notice (in one or more newspapers in this State, in which all legal notices, advertisements, or publications for the State, of any and every character required by law to be made public, shall be published) and said Attorney General, Comptroller General, and Secretary of State, shall have power to make such changes and new designations, from time to time, as they may judge that the public interest requires.
SEC. 2. All State and County Officers, and other persons are hereby required to furnish to the newspapers designated under this Act, for the State and for the representative counties, for publication in such newspapers, all legal notices, advertisements, and every character required by law to be made public; and no legal notice, advertisement or publication required by law to be made public shall be of any valid force or effect unless published in the newspapers designated under this Act; and no publication, of any character in any newspaper shall be of any valid force or effect, if not designated by the Act as being equal to such newspapers, in addition to those designated under this Act, as by and with the advice of the Governor they may select; and bills so incurred shall be audited and paid in the usual manner.
SEC. 3. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
SEC. 4. This Act shall take effect from and after passage. [Jan. 22, 1872.]

WHEELER & WILSON
SEWING MACHINE
(WITH LATEST IMPROVEMENTS.) FOR 20 YEARS THE Standard of Excellence
THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
If you think of buying a Sewing machine it will pay you to examine the records of these machines. Use and profit by experience. The Wheeler & Wilson stands alone as the only Light Running Machine, using the Rotary Hook, making a Lock Stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed. All shuttle machines waste power in drawing the shuttle back after the stitch is formed, bringing double wear and strain upon both machine and operator, hence while other machines rapidly wear out, the Wheeler & Wilson lasts a lifetime, and proves an economical investment.
Do not believe all that is promised by so-called "Cheap" machines, you should require proof that years of use have tested their claims. Money once thrown away cannot be recovered.
Send for our circulars. Machines sold on easy terms, or monthly payments taken. Old machines put in order or received in exchange.

Notice.
OFFICE OF THE G. & C. RAILROAD, COLUMBIA, August 26, 1873.
UNDER a resolution of the Board of Directors, the Interest Coupons of the State guaranteed bonds and of such other bonds of this company as are regularly recorded in the office of the company, matured between the first day of January, 1872, and the first day of July, 1873, both inclusive, will be funded in bonds having ten years to run, as provided for in the company's proposals to the bondholders of date of August 11, 1873. Holders of the above obligations are requested to send in a statement of them to this office, to facilitate the exchange, which it is desired to complete without delay, and enable the necessary arrangements to be made for the resumption of regular interest payments on 1st January next.
